

MACE WATCHABLE WILDLIFE MEMORIAL CENTER

The charming Bob and Phyllis Mace Watchable Wildlife Memorial Center features unique built-in wildlife exhibits, artwork, and beautiful windows. It is an excellent space for many types of events from meetings, social gatherings, wedding receptions, art shows, and fundraising auctions. The building has an occupant capacity of up to 225 for its 6,000 square feet of space.

With its public-address system and wall-mounted television, the building is perfect for presentations. The fully equipped kitchen has a serving counter that makes buffet-style dining a breeze. The large overhead door provides easy access to load in tables, chairs, and other supplies. The building is climate controlled and features a Conference Room that boasts a central meeting table with comfortable chairs. Not to mention restrooms, drinking fountains, and plenty of parking for all of your guests.
